Dear Pastor and Prayer Partners,

If I may be transparent for a moment, I'm pretty tired—borderline exhaustion. But you know that good kind of tired where your body (or your eyeballs) is worn out, but your spirit is on Cloud 9? Praise the Lord, it's that kind of tired!

This month marks 6 years since we started the church, and on our Anniversary Sunday, we had over 180 people in the service; about 20 were first-time visitors. Thankfully, we had rented extra chairs and a tent to put outside with a speaker out there so folks could still hear. We rejoice for souls saved and new families to follow up on.

From there, we worked like crazy to get our new recording studio finalized and prepare for the arrival of a group from Impact Others. Both of these major projects overlapped, but with the amazing team that God has assembled here, we were able to get everything done. It is truly a great privilege to work alongside these men.

With the group from the States providing toys for kids and food baskets for families, we were able to preach the Gospel to 1,500 people in 3 days, with many, many salvation decisions. We gave away over 1,100 toys to children, gave a care package to 60 nursing home residents, and held a community-wide event to help a brand-new church plant. We also gave food baskets to over 250 families that live in severe poverty. Encouragingly, we now have an open door to return to several local schools and continue teaching Biblical morality, as well as the blessing of knowing that several new families have showed up to services in that church plant.

As we move into October, we are now helping a new missionary family, the Tyler Chandler family, get settled in here while they go through the process of learning the language. I will also be making trips to a couple of cities about two hours away. We have had people in those cities reach out, practically begging for us to start a church in their area. We will go to meet a few families and survey these cities with an eye toward starting some sort of monthly meeting for the time being. The harvest is great, and people are searching—what a great time to be a missionary in the northeast of Brazil!

Thank you so much for your prayers and faithful giving. We could not do this without you. Please continue to pray for God to guide and provide as only He can.

Declaring His glory,

Wesley Palla
